

SUBJECT INDEX

- | | | | |
|--|-----|--|-----|
| Activator. Human urokinase and porcine tissue plasminogen — | 189 | Cervical carcinoma. Discrepancy in clinical staging of — | 20 |
| Allotransplantation. Experimental pancreaticoduodenal —: Studies in the unimmunosuppressed pig | 55 | Cervico-vaginal. Sensitivity and specificity of screening by — cytology | 26 |
| Antidepressants. Factors influencing the metabolism of tricyclic —. Studies on interactions and first pass elimination | 81 | Cervix. Cancer of the human uterine —: A cell-physiological study | 125 |
| Asthmatic. Lung function after bronchial challenge in — subjects. A comparison between lung function indices, RAST and skin test | 154 | Cholesterol. Plasma — concentration in Caucasian Danes and Greenland Westcoast Eskimos | 52 |
| Bacterial. — meningitis: A 15-year review of bacterial meningitis from departments of internal medicine | 35 | Clostridial. Acute — enteritis | 114 |
| Bacteriuria. Urinary bladder dysfunction in relation to — | 78 | Colpo-cysto-urethrography. —: A radiological method combined with pressure-flow measurements | 96 |
| Bladder dysfunction. Urinary — in relation to bacteriuria | 78 | Cystopathy. Diabetic — IV: Micturition cysto-urethrography compared with urodynamic investigation | 78 |
| Bronchial challenge. Lung function after — in asthmatic subjects. A comparison between lung function indices, RAST and skin test | 154 | Cystopathy. Diabetic — III: Urinary bladder dysfunction in relation to bacteriuria | 78 |
| Bronchogenic carcinoma. Mediastinoscopy in —: A routine or a selective preoperative procedure? | 30 | Cytology. Evaluation of jaundice. Fine-needle aspiration liver — as a discriminating tool | 104 |
| Cadmium. Exposure to — from medical plastic utensils: An examination by random sampling | 45 | Cytology. Sensitivity and specificity of screening by cervico-vaginal cytology | 26 |
| Cancer of the human uterine cervix. —: A cell-physiological study | 125 | Crohn's disease. Indices of granulocyte activity in ulcerative colitis and — | 72 |
| Cancer penis. — in Denmark 1942 to 1962 | 66 | Danes. Plasma cholesterol concentration in Caucasian — and Greenland West-coast Eskimos | 52 |
| Carcinoma. Population screening for cervical — in Frederiksberg Borough: Economic considerations | 60 | Danes. Whole-blood lead concentration in —: Relation to age and environment | 49 |
| Carcinomas in the head and neck. Histological grading of epidermoid — | 162 | Devices. Factors of importance in the use-effectiveness of intrauterin — | 23 |
| Cardiac arrest. Long-term prognosis after acute myocardial infarction, with special reference to complicating —, cardiogenic shock, and pulmonary oedema | 143 | Diabetes mellitus. — and somatostatin. A review | 1 |
| Cardiogenic shock. Long-term prognosis after acute myocardial infarction, with special reference to complicating cardiac arrest, —, and pulmonary oedema | 143 | Diabetic. — cystopathy IV: Micturition cysto-urethrography compared with urodynamic investigation | 78 |
| Cerebrospinal. Intraventricular isotope encephalography, continuous intraventricular pressure recording and biochemical changes in the — fluid in low-pressure hydrocephalus | 14 | Diabetic. — cystopathy III: Urinary bladder dysfunction in relation to bacteriuria | 78 |
| Cervical. Population screening for — carcinoma in Frederiksberg Borough: Economic considerations | 60 | Diverticulosis. Malabsorption in small intestinal — treated with a low dosage sulphonamide-trimethoprim | 33 |
| | | Duodenal ulcer. Ulcer disease. A comparison of some clinical and genetic aspects in patients suffering from —, gastric ulcer and the pseudo-ulcer syndrome | 213 |
| | | Encephalography. Intraventricular isotope —. A methodological study | 7 |
| | | Encephalography. Intraventricular isotope —, continuous intraventricular pressure recording and biochemical changes in the cerebrospinal fluid in low-pressure hydrocephalus | 14 |

Endotoxin. »— discovered 120 years ago«	78	Isotope. Intraventricular — encephalography. A methodological study	7
Enteritis. Acute clostridial —	114	Isotope. Intraventricular — encephalography, continuous intraventricular pressure recording and biochemical changes in the cerebrospinal fluid in low-pressure hydrocephalus	14
Epilepsy. Temporal lobe —. With special reference to surgical results, neuropathology, and social conditions	235	Jaundice. Evaluation of —. Fine-needle aspiration liver cytology as a discriminating tool	104
Eskimos. Plasma cholesterol concentration in Caucasian Danes and Greenland Westcoast —	52	Lead. Whole-blood — concentration in Danes: Relation to age and environment	49
Fatty acids. Determination of fecal — in the control of treatment with medium chain triglycerides	101	Liver. Evaluation of jaundice. Fine-needle aspiration — cytology as a discriminating tool	104
Fecal. Determination of — fatty acids in the control of treatment with medium chain triglycerides	101	Liver lesions. Ultrasonic scanning for focal —	151
Fine-needle aspiration. Evaluation of jaundice. — liver cytology as a discriminating tool	104	Low-pressure hydrocephalus. Intraventricular isotope encephalography, continuous intraventricular pressure recording and biochemical changes in the cerebrospinal fluid in —	14
Focal. Ultrasonic scanning for — liver lesions	151	Lung function. — after bronchial challenge in asthmatic subjects. A comparison between lung function indices, RAST and skin test	154
Foetus. Growth of the human	89	Malabsorption. — in small intestinal diverticulosis treated with a low dosage sulphonamide-trimethoprim	33
Gastric ulcer. Ulcer disease. A comparison of some clinical and genetic aspects in patients suffering from duodenal ulcer, — and the pseudo-ulcer syndrome	213	Mediastinoscopy. — in bronchogenic carcinoma: A routine or a selective preoperative procedure?	30
Genetic. — aspects of spontaneous abortion	169	Medium chain triglycerides. Determination of fecal fatty acids in the control of treatment with —	101
Grading. Histological — of epidermoid carcinomas in the head and neck	162	Membrane filtration. Postinfusion phlebitis and in-line terminal	160
Granulocyte. Indices of — activity in ulcerative colitis and Crohn's disease	72	Meningitis: Bacterial —: A 15-year review of bacterial meningitis from departments of internal medicine	35
Greenland. Plasma cholesterol concentration in Caucasian Danes and — West-coast Eskimos	52	Mesenteric. Occlusive disease of the — arteries. A clinical radiological study	117
Growth. — of the human foetus	89	Metabolism. Factors influencing the — of tricyclic antidepressants. Studies on interactions and first pass elimination	81
Head. Histological grading of epidermoid carcinomas in the — and neck	162	Mycosis fungoides. Photochemotherapy of —: Preliminary communication	40
Hemodialysis. Iron absorption in non-dialysed patients with chronic renal failure, in patients on regular —, and in renal transplanted patients	108	Myocardial. Long-term prognosis after acute — infarction, with special reference to complicating cardiac arrest, cardiogenic shock, and pulmonary oedema	143
Histological grading. — of epidermoid carcinomas in the head and neck	162	Myocardial infarction. Long-term prognosis after acute —, with special reference to complicating cardiac arrest, cardiogenic shock, and pulmonary oedema	143
Hydrocephalus. Intraventricular isotope encephalography, continuous intraventricular pressure recording, and biochemical changes in the cerebrospinal fluid in low pressure —	14	Myocardial infarction. Risk factors of — and death in men aged 50 at entrance. A ten-year prospective study from the Glostrup population studies	252
Immunoglobulin. Clinical aspects of transient — deficiency in children	206	Neck. Histological grading of epidermoid carcinomas in the head and —	162
Immunoglobulin deficiency. Clinical aspects of transient — in children	206	Occlusive disease. — of the mesenteric arteries. A clinical and radiological study	117
Interactions. Factors influencing the metabolism of tricyclic antidepressants. Studies on — and first pass elimination	81	Pancreaticoduodenal. Experimental — allotransplantation: Studies in the unimmunosuppressed pig	55
Intraventricular. — isotope encephalography. A methodological study	7
Intraventricular. — isotope encephalography, continuous intraventricular pressure recording and biochemical changes in the cerebrospinal fluid in low-pressure hydrocephalus	14
Intrauterine devices. Factors of importance in the use-effectiveness of —	23
Intrauterine. Factors of importance in the use-effectiveness of — devices	23
Iron	108
Iron absorption. — in non-dialysed patients with chronic renal failure, in patients on regular hemodialysis, and in renal transplanted patients	108

Penis. Cancer — in Denmark 1942 to 1962 (511 cases)	66	Renal transplanted. Iron absorption in non-dialysed patients with chronic renal failure, in patients on regular hemodialysis, and in — patients	108
Phlebitis. Postinfusion — and in-line terminal membrane filtration	160	Risk factors. — of myocardial infarction and death in men aged 50 at entry. A ten-year prospective study from the Glostrup population studies	252
Pig. Experimental pancreaticoduodenal allotransplantation: Studies in the unimmunosuppressed —	55	Screening. Sensitivity and specificity of — by cervico-vaginal cytology	26
Plasminogen. Human urokinase and porcine tissue — activator	189	Skin test. Lung function after bronchial challenge in asthmatic subjects. A comparison between lung function indices, RAST and —	154
Plastic utensils. Exposure to cadmium from medical —: An examination by random sampling	45	Somatostatin. Diabetes mellitus and —. A review	1
Population screening. — for cervical carcinoma in Frederiksberg Borough: Economic considerations	60	Spontaneous abortion. Genetic aspects of —	169
Porcine. Human urokinase and — tissue plasminogen activator	189	Staging. Discrepancy in clinical — of cervical carcinoma	20
Postinfusion. — phlebitis and in-line terminal membrane filtration	160	Sulphonamide-trimethoprim. Malabsorption in small intestinal diverticulosis treated with a low dosage	33
Pregnancy tests. The reliability of — performed by trained and untrained persons	115	Temporal Lobe. — Epilepsy. With special reference to surgical results, neuropathology, and social conditions	235
Pressure-flow. Colpo-cysto-urethrography: A radiological method combined with — measurements	96	Tricyclic. Factors influencing the metabolism of — antidepressants. Studies on interactions and first pass elimination.	81
Prognosis. Long-term — after acute myocardial infarction, with special reference to complicating cardiac arrest, cardiogenic shock, and pulmonary oedema	143	Ulcer disease. — A comparison of some clinical and genetic aspects in patients suffering from duodenal ulcer, gastric ulcer and the —	213
Pseudo-ulcer syndrome. Ulcer disease. A comparison of some clinical and genetic aspects in patients suffering from duodenal ulcer, gastric ulcer and the —	213	Ulcerative colitis. Indices of granulocyte activity in — and Crohn's disease	72
Pulmonary oedema. Long-term prognosis after acute myocardial infarction, with special reference to complicating cardiac arrest, cardiogenic shock, and —	143	Ultrasonic. — scanning for focal liver lesions	151
RAST. Lung function after bronchial challenge in asthmatic subjects. A comparison between lung function indices, — and skin test	154	Unimmunosuppressed. Experimental pancreaticoduodenal allotransplantation: Studies in the — pig	55
Renal failure. Iron absorption in non-dialysed patients with chronic —, in patients on regular hemodialysis, and in renal transplanted patients	108	Urokinase. Human — and porcine tissue plasminogen activator	189
		Use-effectiveness. Factors of importance in the — of intrauterine devices	23
